Corps Circular Memorandum.

A parchment certificate will, in future, be given to all Non-Commissioned Officers, and Sappers, who pass through a satisfactory course of instruction, in any of the Special Schools, at the Royal Engineer Establishment, at Chatham. Any Non-Commissioned Officer or Sapper who has been through a course of instruction, since the 1st January, 1866, can be provided with such certificate on application, through the Commanding Royal Engineer of the station, to the Assistant Adjutant General of the Corps, at Horse Guards.

The certificate is to be sewn in the pocket ledger, before the first page, and it should be signed by the recipient in the left hand bottom corner.

The special qualifications detailed in the parchment certificate are likewise to be inserted on the back of the Company Record of Service.

Commanding Royal Engineers will hold Captains of Companies responsible, that the instructions contained in the two preceding paragraphs are strictly carried out.

By Command,
H. FANE KEANE,
