SIR,

ACCOUNT, No. 2.

1. In reply to Circular No. 89, of the 13th September 1867, I am directed to observe that as only one-half of the year has expired, it is impossible to state with any degree of accuracy what will be the probable expenditure from the funds allotted for Public Works in this Presidency for 1867-68, but that, so far as this Government are now in a position to judge, there is every reason to believe that the Budget assignment to Madras will be fully utilized.

2. The Consulting Engineer for Railways has been desired to report whether any short outlay is anticipated against the grant for "State expenditure on guaranteed railways," and his reply will, on receipt, be communicated to the Government of India.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
