General No. 2
4,899

1. The Secretary of State for War having had under his consideration the operation of War Office Circular 540, dated 25th January 1860, has decided on cancelling it.

2. Buildings, therefore, to which it had reference, will henceforth be dealt with under the ordinary Barrack Regulations.

3. In deciding thus, Secretary Lieutenant-General Peal desires that the special attention of Commanding Royal Engineers and of Barrack Masters be called to the necessity of strictly carrying out such of those regulations as relate to damages to buildings not caused by fair wear.

4. Barrack Masters, therefore, before certifying and forwarding requisitions for repairs, and Commanding Royal Engineers before ordering the execution of the same, will exercise the closest supervision to see that no expense fall on the public for repairs due in any degree to carelessness, or to neglect on the part of the occupant of a quarter.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 30th January 1867.

5. The regulations as to the repairs of broken glass will be specially borne in mind. As a rule, all glass broken in a quarter should be charged against the occupant.

Grounds and gardens attached to a quarter will be kept in order by the occupant. No expense will be borne by the public.
