1. I have the honor to solicit the sanction of Government to the disposal of the cast-iron chairs marginally noted.

2. These chairs were returned into stores from the North Arcot District in March 1864, together with other unserviceable stores. They are at present useless without rails and axles made expressly to suit them, and they unnecessarily occupy space which might be usefully appropriated to other articles. I therefore recommend that they be sold to Mr. D'Closets for foundry purposes, the proceeds arising from such sale being carried to credit of Government.

Sir

I have the honor to solicit the sanction of Government to the disposal of the Cast iron Chairs marginally noted.

These Chairs were returned into stores from the North Arcot District in March 1866, together with other unserviceable stores. They are at present useless without Sails and Arches made expressly to suit them, and they unnecessarily occupy space which might be usefully appropriated to other articles. I therefore recommend that they be sold to Mr de Closetts for Foundry purposes, the proceeds arising from such sale being carried to credit of Government.
