Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
23rd October 1867.

No. 502. Read the following letter from Mr. W. R. NORRIS, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 18th October 1867:—

1. I beg to submit to your notice the accompanying account of incidental expenses on the journey between London and Madras, on behalf of Mr. Wybrow and myself. Owing to an accident which happened to the P. and O. Steamer "Surat" in the Red Sea, we, the passengers via Southampton, were detained unexpectedly at Cairo for four days, our expenses at the hotel amounting to 25s. per day.

2. The P. and O. Company in their transit charges do not include any expenses which may be incurred by the passengers from unavoidable delays, and the Under Secretary in London, Mr. Danvers, told me the Government here would meet any such expenses as the above on my application; I would therefore submit our accounts to your notice hoping you will deem the claim a valid one.

No. 503. ORDER THEREON, 23rd October 1867, No. 3,297.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 63.

The bill submitted with this letter, amounting to Rupees 100, is sanctioned, and the Controller is authorized to pass the charge against the general allotment for travelling allowances in the Budget of the current official year.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) CHARLES A. ORR, Colonel, R. E.,
Secretary to Government.

To the Controller of Public Works Accounts, with Bill.
To Mr. Norris.
