Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th January 1867.

No. 88. Read the following Telegram from Acting Collector, Kurnool, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 24th December 1866 :—

Season generally favorable. The white cholum has been affected by insects in Cumbum, Markapoor, and Koilkoontla. Rain has fallen to small extent in Cumbum, Sirwell, and Markapoor. Prices stationary. Market supplied. Health—fever as bad as ever, one hundred and fifty-three deaths during the past week in Kurnool town alone. It would be well if more medical aid was sent here; present staff have more than they well can do. Pasture sufficient.

No. 89.

Miscellaneous.

ORDER THEREON, 8th January 1867, No. 45.

Communicated to the Inspector General, Medical Department, whose attention is drawn to the reputed prevalence of fever.
