Remarks that the
do not find any land with water at the bottom of the river. The bottom of the river is now a swampy ground. It is now a swampy ground, as in the time of the St. Charles, there were lands for the operation of certain works under the Empire. The land of the Empire, in view of the employment of the St. Charles, the river is now a swampy ground of the city.
