Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 28th February 1867.

No. 582. Read the following letter from the Collector of Coimbatore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Coimbatore, 9th February 1867, No. 11:—

1. In reply to Proceedings of Government and their Order thereon, dated 22nd January 1867, No. 126, I have the honor to inform you that I have inspected the Choultry at Errode, now occupied by the Police, who will quit it in about six weeks or two months, by which time they expect to be put in possession of their new Station-house, now under construction.

2. The Choultry is in a very dilapidated condition, and even if put in thorough repair it would be unsuited for the accommodation of the Moonsiff's Court. A new first class Court House should be commenced at once.

3. Errode is fast increasing in importance, and on the completion of the Great Southern of India Railway, it is likely to become much more extensive than it now is.

Transferred to the Public Works Department, in view to orders being issued for the early submission of a plan and estimate for the erection of a Moonsiff's Court House at Errode.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
