

No 160

Surround Collector's Office
30 April 1868.

From

H. A. A. Chavakoff.
Collector of Surround.

To

The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Sir

Fort Saint George

Referring to Government
Order No. 918 dated 8th April 1868.

I have the honor to state that the name of the person who distinguished himself by his liberality to his destitute countrymen in the famine of 1866, is Budda Vengala
Reddi, and not Budda Punga
Reddi as stated in the Government Orders.

2 Budda Vengala Reddi is now at Madras, and the orders of Government

[illegible]

25 May 68

Sept. 13.
Advised that it necessary to consult the works in the 10

88-1473.

Wm. L. G. L.

James D. Griffith

Dec 30th April 1868

Received of Mary -

Ms. 73.
De 110

Debt - 1000

[illegible]