No. 303. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th January 1868, No. 118 :—

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 26th November 1867, No. 2,803, Revenue Department.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating a letter from the Accountant General, reporting the practice adopted in his Office regarding sanction for Local Funds works to be executed by Public Works Department.

In the first clause of paragraph 2 of the Accountant General's letter, dated 21st November 1867, No. 264, recorded at the head of the Proceedings of Government above recorded, the Accountant General states that Local Fund sanctions do not lapse with the year, and that the sum sanctioned in one year is available for expenditure in the subsequent year. The Board submit that the Accountant General has here fallen into a mistake, for the Budget rules and Budget system are applied to the Local Funds under the existing rules in the same manner as to Imperial Funds, and the sanction granted in one year has not hitherto been considered available for expenditure in the following year. It is for this reason that works provided for in one year's Budget and not finished within that year are again provided for in the subsequent year's Budget. Works not entered in the Budget of the year cannot be executed with reference to the former year's sanction, and it is most essential that the Budget rule in this respect should be strictly

2. The Government concur in opinion with the Board that it is necessary to maintain the Budget rule in this respect, as the contrary course is likely to cause much embarrassment in preparing the Local Fund Budget Estimates, and to lead to confusion in the accounts, and want of care and activity in the Executive.
