RESOLUTION.—In anticipation of the sanction of the Secretary of State for India, the Viceroy and Governor General in Council has resolved on introducing experimentally, for the space of one year, a uniform rate of one Rupee for every message of ten words for all India, including British Burma. The new system will come into operation from the 1st October next, unless Her Majesty's Government shall decide otherwise

2 His Excellency in Council accordingly directs that the above information be communicated to the different Railway Companies which are licensed to transmit telegrams over their lines, with a view to their adopting the same rates on telegrams, whether the messages be conveyed between any two stations of one Railway Company, or between one station belonging to one Railway Company and another station belonging to Government, or to any other Company. In the former case, the Railway Company will receive the full value of the telegram, in the latter, the sum must be divided between the different administrations concerned, however many there may be.
