1 Translation of the Complaint.
1 Draft Answer.

1. I have the honor to apply for authority for Mr. Randall, Executive Engineer, Godavery District, to defend a suit brought against him under the following circumstances :—

In a letter, No. 463, dated 8th November 1867, the Executive Engineer brought to the Sub-Collector's notice that Vencatanursimloo, an inhabitant of Comara, in the Oondy Talook, had planted trees and encroached on the Weyeru at Comara to add to the compound of his house. The Sub-Collector personally inspected the place, and, having found that the man had encroached, charged him ten times the assessment; whereupon the above-named Vencatanursimloo has filed a suit in the Court of the District Moonsiff of Ellore to establish his right to the ground, and to recover the money thus levied from him and his expenses, the Executive Engineer and the Sub-Collector being made first and second defendants respectively.

2. A Translation of the Complaint and Draft of the Answer, which the Executive Engineer will make, are herewith forwarded.

No. 256. ORDER THEREON, 14th November 1868, No. 3,557.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 25.

(1) J. W. Randall Executive Engineer Western Bellin

Go Damery District by N. Ramachandraseo for Rs 57-7-6.

That the 1st Defendant complains from the village of Comara that a substantial encroachment was made by the plaintiff in the Wayyora Channel at Comara. That finding such an encroachment he was bound by his duty as reporting it to the Revenue Officer and that such report was a private communication which cannot be questioned by the plaintiff: and that the subsequent change of land Revenue for the area of land which the plaintiff had encroached upon, was the act of the Sub-Collector and for this the 1st Defendant is clearly not responsible. He therefore on the above grounds prays the Court that the suit against him may be dismissed for ever.
