Hospett may be made over to the Depart-† No 84, 24th April 1868, recorded in Board's ment of Public Works as a Range Office.
Proceedings, 23rd June 1868, No 4,647 In a previous letter† I recommended that the building should be retained for the use of the Second Assistant Superintendent of Police, but the Superintendent has informed me that he does not require it

2. I beg to recommend the building being made over as requested

From the Superintending Engineer, 3rd Division, to the Collector of Bellary, dated 11th September 1868, No. 2,140

With reference to paragraph 7 of Government Order, No 1,009, dated 17th April last, in the Revenue Department, I have the honor to request you will obtain the sanction of Government to the transfer of the building at Hospett, lately occupied as the Head Assistant's Office to this Department as a Range Office for the Hospett Range, as there is no proper accommodation at Ramandroog, the present head-quarters, besides which the place is not looked upon with favor by the Accountants and others attached to the Range Office, if the building is not required by you for any other purpose
