Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 30th November 1868.

No. 619. Read the following letter from the Superintending Engineer, 2nd Division, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Bezoarah, 30th October 1868, No. 104:—

1. I have the honor to forward comparative statement of the estimated work at the Kottapatnam Sea Custom House, as sanctioned in G. O., No. 822, dated 13th March 1866, and that actually executed, showing an excess of Rupees 133-9-3 of the original proposed cost, and request the sanction of Government to the increased expenditure.

2. The Range Officer reports that the increase is due to the cost of fuel near the sea coast, the high rates prevalent at a sea port, which exceed those which are common in the talook generally, and the substitution of teak wood for doors and windows in lieu of country wood. I consider that the explanation afforded by Mr. Sayce is reasonable.

No. 620. ORDER THEREON, 30th November 1868, No. 3,730.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 100.

Under the explanation afforded in this letter, the Controller of Public Works Accounts is authorized to pass the excess outlay of Rupees 133-9-3 which has been incurred on the Custom House at Kottapatnam in the Nellore District.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and dates, which appears to be a record of some kind. The names are written in a cursive script, and the dates are in a more formal, printed style. The list is organized into columns, with names in the first column and dates in the second column.

2. The second part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries. These are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a list-like format. Some of the entries are preceded by numbers, suggesting a sequence or order.

3. The third part of the document is a series of longer, handwritten notes or entries. These are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a list-like format. Some of the entries are preceded by numbers, suggesting a sequence or order.

4. The fourth part of the document is a series of longer, handwritten notes or entries. These are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a list-like format. Some of the entries are preceded by numbers, suggesting a sequence or order.

5. The fifth part of the document is a series of longer, handwritten notes or entries. These are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a list-like format. Some of the entries are preceded by numbers, suggesting a sequence or order.

1. The first part of the text discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for determining the correct amount of tax liability.

2. The second part of the text describes the various methods used to calculate the tax liability, including the use of tax tables and the application of various deductions and credits. It also discusses the importance of understanding the tax laws that apply to the taxpayer's situation.

3. The third part of the text discusses the various ways in which a taxpayer can pay their tax liability, including by check, credit card, or direct payment to the IRS. It also discusses the importance of paying taxes on time to avoid penalties and interest.

4. The fourth part of the text discusses the various ways in which a taxpayer can claim a refund, including by filing a refund claim with the IRS or by requesting a refund from the employer. It also discusses the importance of understanding the rules that apply to claiming a refund.

5. The fifth part of the text discusses the various ways in which a taxpayer can avoid or reduce their tax liability, including by taking advantage of various tax breaks and deductions. It also discusses the importance of understanding the rules that apply to these various tax breaks and deductions.
