2. The Superintendent of Police reports that the menial had been employed from February 1862 by the Department of Public Works, and charged by them against various estimates up to April 1866. From May 1866, the Police Department had to bear the charge; and a sum of Rupees 94-1-0 paid to the above menial from May 1866 to 21st August 1867 remains unadjusted, the Deputy Accountant General having objected to pass the charge for want of the sanction of Government.

No. 102. ORDER THEREON, 19th November 1868, No. 1433.
Sanctioned accordingly.
