Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
4th December 1868.

From the Chief Engineer, to the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, dated Madras, 6th November 1868, No. 434.

1. I have much pleasure in recommending the promotion of Mr. George Webb, from Rupees 300 to Rupees 350 per mensem.
2. He is a good Mechanic, and has rendered us excellent service since his transfer to the Engineering Department in May 1866, more especially upon the Kuddelohandy bridge works, where his simple and ingenious inventions, more especially his pile cutting machine, have contributed in no small degree to their satisfactory progress.
3. The increase I apply for will simply place Mr. Webb on a par, as regards salary, with the nearest Locomotive Foreman (Armstrong).
4. I enclose a copy of a testimonial granted to him in June 1864, when about to leave the Locomotive Department on his return to England.

MADRAS RAILWAY COMPANY.
Locomotive Suptd.'s Office, Perambore Works,
Madras, 27th June 1864.

George Webb has been employed in this Department as a Foreman in the Waggon building shops, from 19th September 1856 to 27th March 1864.

He is an excellent workman and a most industrious, sober, steady, and, I believe, thoroughly trustworthy man. He leaves the service of his own accord to return to England.
