Read the following letter from the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to the Acting Deputy Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 27th November 1868, No. 525.

1. I regret to have the honor to
* No. 251, dated 27th November 1868. enclose copy of a communication* received from the Acting Locomotive Superintendent, reporting the decease, at about a quarter past nine this morning, of George Brown, a Foreman in his Department.

2. Mr. Collinson, you will observe, states that Dr. Urquhart attributes Brown's sudden death to some internal complaint.

From the Acting Locomotive Superintendent, to the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, dated Perambore Works, 27th November 1868, No. 251.

1. It is with great regret I have to report to you the death of Foreman George Brown, which occurred this morning about a quarter past nine. He was laid up with a slight attack of fever on Monday last, and Dr. Urquhart, who attended him, had no serious apprehension of any danger until last evening, when a change for the worse took place. Dr. Urquhart attributes his sudden death to some internal complaint.

2. Brown had been nearly seven years in the Company's service, and was, as you are aware, a most valuable servant.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government.
