GROUNDS OF PROPOSITION.

1. These transfers have been authorized in anticipation of the sanction of the Government of India with a view to the funds which were reported by Superintending Engineers to be available for transfer, being utilized to the best advantage

2. The letter to the Government of India, dated 18th November 1868, No. 3,609, will explain the transfer of the Budget assignment of Rupees 80,000 for "Tools and Plant."

3. As the assignment in Part IV. of the Budget for the maintenance of roads included a provision for the salaries of persons employed on specific works, either as artisans or for the purposes of subordinate supervision, it was, under a misapprehension of the rules, reduced in the year 1866, and the amount deducted was transferred to the credit of "Establishments," that head being debited with charges of the nature above described. In accordance, however, with the orders contained in paragraph 12 of Section 3, Chapter I. of the Code of the Government of India, the amount thus erroneously diverted has now been re-transferred to "Communications."

As per order of the Code of the Govt of India, the amount thus erroneously diverted has now been retransferred to "Communications."

Grounds of Proposition

These transfers have been authorized in anticipation of the sanction of the Govt of India with a view to the funds, which were reported by Mr. [unclear] to be available for transfers being utilized to the best advantage.

The letter to the Govt of India of 10th Novr 1869, will explain the transfer of the Budget assignment of Rs 8000 for "Public Works".

As the assignment in Part IV of the Budget for the maintenance of roads included a provision for the salaries of persons employed on specific works, either as artisans or for the purposes of maintenance and repairs, it was, under a misunderstanding of the rules, reduced in the year 1866, and the amount deducted was transferred to the credit of "Establishments", that had been debited with charges of the nature above described; and, accordingly, with the order contained in P 12 of Sec 3 Chapter I of the Code of the Govt of India, the amount thus erroneously diverted has now been retransferred to "Communications".
