No. 212. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th March 1869, No. 1,906 :—

Read the following letter from the Collector of Bellary, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 9th March 1869, No. 39 :—

Adverting to the Board's Proceedings, No. 7,001, dated 5th October 1868, and paragraph 2 of the Order of Government, Public Works Department, dated 2nd November 1868, No. 2,758, communicated with the Board's Proceedings of the 21st idem, No. 8,248, I have the honour to request, in anticipation of the Railway being opened to Ghooty on the 1st proximo, that I may be informed whether it is the intention of Government to provide accommodation for Railway passengers in the vicinity of the Ghooty Station. I have reserved a site for a bungalow close to the entrance of the Station ground, whereon to meet what, in my opinion, is a pressing exigency. I request permission to construct a temporary building at a cost of Rupees 300 or Rupees 400. A list of travellers making use of it would be kept, which would enable the Government to decide whether a permanent building was necessary. I would transfer all the furniture from the Tadputry bungalow and a portion of that which is now in the existing Ghooty bungalow, and would charge a fee. Requesting early orders on the subject, I have, &c.

The Board in their Proceedings of the 5th October 1868, No. 7,001, forwarded to Government proposals from the Collector of Bellary for erecting a public bungalow at Ghooty Station for the accommodation of travellers. The Board, having in view the experience already gained at Coimbatore, recommended that the requisite accommodation should be provided in connection with the station buildings.

2. In their Proceedings of 18th November 1868, No. 3,607, Department Public Works, Government decided that there was no necessity for incurring a heavy outlay for the provision of accommodation at Ghooty, as Raichore would be the halfway house between Madras and Bombay on completion of the line.

3. The Collector now applies for permissionto expend from the bungalow Fund 300 or 400 Rupees in the erection of a temporary building on a suitable site reserved near the Station. The existing bungalow, he explains, is two miles distant and Mr. Sullivan proposes to transfor from the latter, as well as from the Tadputry bungalow, furniture for the new building.

4. The Board fully concur with the Collector in the necessity for this temporary provision, and sanction has accordingly been transmitted by telegraph.

5. The Collector will take care that the destination of travellers halting at the bungalow is duly recorded, to enable the Board to judge whether accommodation will be necessary when Ghooty ceases to be a point of departure by road for Raichore and Bellary.
