No. 19. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel W. H. HORSLEY, Chief Engineer, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, dated Chepauk, 1st November 1861, No. 6,759 :—

SIR,

1. With reference to the application for additional assistance made by Captain Haig in his letter of 21st September 1861, No. 77, and to the Proceedings of Government, No. 2,013, dated 30th October 1861, I have the honor to recommend that Lieutenant Begbie of the 35th Regiment Native Infantry may be appointed as one of the Assistants required for the work on the Shoals, and that if the Government approve, the usual application may be made to the Commander-in-Chief for his services. His Staff salary will be Rupees 150 per month with Rupees 4 per day for travelling allowance.

2. Lieutenant Begbie, as will be seen from the accompanying Certificate, was employed under Captain Forlong in the construction of the Arracan Roads, and has acquired some experience in the management of large bodies of workmen. He has passed for the Staff and for Surveying.

No. 20. ORDER THEREON, 4th November 1861, No. 2,029.

1. Resolved that application be made immediately for the services of Lieut. G. Begbie, 35th Regiment Native Infantry.

2. There being great want of Assistants in the Upper Godavery, Lieutenant Begbie, if available, will be ordered to join forthwith.

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
