24th June 1869.*

No. 547.

ACCOUNT, No. 29:

Dated 24th June 1869, No. 2,059.

THE Government of India having directed attention to the absolute necessity of all expenditure on Public Works being kept strictly within the limits of the Budget allotment under each main head of service, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs that, except where otherwise specially ordered, no work either within the competence of this Government, or of the Superintending Engineers or other authority to sanction, shall hereafter be commenced unless a special assignment of funds is made for it in the first instance, and that no outlay in excess of authorised allotments shall be incurred in anticipation of sanction of a supplemental appropriation. Superintending Engineers will take the necessary steps to ensure compliance with these instructions, and the Controller of Public Works Accounts will specially bring to notice any case in which these orders have been contravened.
