With reference to G. O., No. 2,624, of 10th August 1869, I have the honour to forward a plan of the sick lines of the Madras Cavalry Regiment at Bellary.

There are—

26 Stalls.

1 Surgery.
1 Office or writing-room, and sixteen pickets for horses in the open air.

2. The Veterinary Surgeon of the Regiment states that the accommodation is insufficient, as testified by the state of the pillars which are being repeatedly broken and repaired; they should be out of range of the horses' hoofs, and he recommends that each stall should be at least 12 feet square, the present being only 12×9, including the pillars.
