Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 2nd February 1869.

No. 56. Read the following letter from the Officer in charge of Operations, Wynaad, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Luckadie, 16th January 1869, No. 769 :—

1. A plan and estimate of a house for the Deputy Collector at Manantoddy, referred to in Government Order, No. 1,016, dated 31st March 1868, was forwarded to the Collector of Malabar, who appears to think that the design is too expensive. I shall therefore be obliged by being informed to what amount the cost should be limited.

* Sent by Banghy.

2. I beg to forward the plan* of the house I submitted for the opinion of the Collector.
