No. 328. Read the following Endorsement of the Acting Deputy Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 24th September 1869, No. 311:—

Read the following letter from the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 23rd September 1869, No. 532.

I HAVE the honour to enclose a copy of para. 5 of the Secretary's letter, No. 437, dated the 6th of August, having reference to the question of extra remuneration to be granted to Mr. Pinson, while officiating as Chief Engineer during Mr. Anderson's absence in Australia.

2. My Directors, you will observe, are of opinion that any alteration in the existing regulations, regarding acting allowances, is inexpedient, and that they prefer to treat the present as an exceptional case, and to sanction, subject to the approval of Government, Mr. Pinson's drawing the acting allowance to which he would be entitled were the Civil Service Rule in operation on the Railway.

3. I have the pleasure to annex a copy of the rule in question, and will thank you to obtain the sanction of Government to Mr. Pinson's drawing acting allowance under its provisions.

4. You will doubtless remember that my application to the Board, relative to the adoption of the Civil Service Rule, regarding acting allowances, was made with the full concurrence of Government.—Vide G. O., No. 1,551, dated 12th May 1869.

Extract of a letter from the Secretary, London Board, Madras Railway Company, dated 6th August 1869, No. 437.

PARA. 5.—In dealing with the question of the extra remuneration to be granted to Mr. Pinson, while officiating as Chief Engineer during Mr. Anderson's absence, the Board have had under consideration the Civil Service Rule regarding acting allowances, quoted in para. 14 of your No. 843, the adoption of which you recommend. The Board, however, are of opinion that any alteration in the existing regulations on this subject is inexpedient. They prefer to treat the present as an exceptional case, and to sanction, subject to the approval of Government, Mr. Pinson's drawing the acting allowance to which he would be entitled were the rule above referred to in operation, and they will not object to take into consideration any individual case of a like nature that may hereafter occur.

Extract from Civil Service Rules regarding acting allowances.

RULE 1.—An officer holding a substantive appointment and officiating in an appointment of a higher grade or class, shall draw acting allowance calculated at thirty per cent. on the first Rs. 2,000, and twenty per cent. on the remainder of the pay of the appointment in which he is officiating.

2. Provided that if the acting allowance so calculated do not amount to two-thirds of the difference between the pay of the two appointments, it shall be raised to two-thirds.

3. Provided further that in no case shall the whole salary so drawn exceed the pay of the appointment in which the officer is officiating.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 16th October 1869.

FORWARDED to Government with reference to G. O., No. 1,551, of 12th May 1869.

2. The Board of Directors having approved of the Agent and Manager's proposition, that Mr. Pinson should draw deputation allowance according to the Civil Rules during the Chief Engineer's absence, sanction for the payment of the sum due is now solicited.

Para 5. In dealing with the question of the extra remuneration to be granted to Mr. Pinson, while officiating as Chief Engineer during Mr.
Anderson's absence, the Board have had under consideration the Civil Service Rule regarding Acting Allowances, quoted in para 14 of your 843, the adoption of which you recommended. The Board however are of opinion that any alteration in the existing regulations on this subject is inexpedient.
They prefer to treat the present as an exceptional Case, and to sanction, subject to the approval of Government, Mr. Pinson's drawing the Acting Allowance to which he would be entitled under the rule above referred to in operation, and they will not object to take into consideration any individual Case of a like nature that may hereafter occur.
