Boileau, Colonel, R. E.—Proceedings
Military Department, regarding the furlough to Europe of Colonel Boileau, communicated to the Officer concerned.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Military Department, 23rd January 1869.

Read the following papers:—

No. 699. Memorandum from the Controller of Military Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort Saint George, 23rd January 1869, No. 3005.

The Controller of Military Accounts has the honor to forward, for the orders of Government, letter of the Pay Examiner regarding the inadmissibility of furlough to Colonel A. J. M. Boileau, Engineer, who is about to proceed to England by the Steamer now in the roads.

2. The Controller of Military Accounts desires to observe that a representation of Major C. Hearn, regarding the application of the revised rules to Officers who have taken leave under the rules originally promulgated, is under the consideration of Government.

From the Pay Examiner, to the Controller of Military Accounts; dated Fort Saint George, 23rd January 1869, No. 114.

I have the honor to submit, for your instructions, a memorandum of the Presidency Paymaster dated 21st January 1869, with the claim of Colonel A. J. M. Boileau, Royal Engineers, for an advance of 50 per cent of his pay proper on the eve of his embarkation on the furlough granted him in G. O. G. 3rd November 1868, No. 406.

2. The claim was received after the office had closed on the 21st—it was examined yesterday, when it appeared that Colonel Boileau, had been absent from India on medical certificate (in Australia) from the 14th May to 30th November 1867, under the orders as per margin.

G. O. G. 7th May 1867, No. 196.

G. O. G. 6th December 1867, No. 498.

3. As that leave did not extend to one year, the furlough granted on the 3rd November last, was not barred by rule VIII, as it then stood, but rule VIII as revised and published in G. O. G. 1st December 1868, No. 434, renders Colonel Boileau ineligible for furlough, except under rule XI or XIV, and he is, therefore, in the opinion of this office not entitled to 50 per cent of his pay as claimed.

4. The claim would have been officially referred to you at once, but I communicated demi-officially with the Adjutant General's Office on the subject in the first instance, and only ascertained that that office was of opinion that Colonel Boileau's leave still held good when the office was closing last evening.

5. Colonel Boileau, it will be observed, is about to embark on the P. and O. Steamer Candia now in the roads.

ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1869, No. 357.
No. 700. The Government concur in the view of the Pay Examiner, that Colonel Boileau having returned from sick leave of India on the 30th November 1867, is ineligible, under rule VIII of the revised furlough regulations, to the furlough granted to him in G. O. G. 3rd November 1868, No. 406.

2. Had Colonel Boileau proceeded on that furlough before the promulgation of the revised rules, his case would have been different, but as they were published in this Presidency so far back as the 1st December last, and Colonel Boileau had thus sufficient time to ascertain their effect in his individual case, and to apply to Government for instructions, that Officer must now understand that if he proceed on the furlough to which it has been incidentally discovered that he is not entitled, he does so on his own responsibility.

3. The correspondence will, however, in that case be forwarded for the favorable consideration of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India; but the Government cannot guarantee the result.
