No. 541. Read the following letter from the Acting Superintending Engineer, 4th Division, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 12th October 1869, No. 3,590 :—

I HAVE the honour to request the favourable consideration of Government to an application made by C. Sabapathy Moodelly, Assistant Estimator and Accountant in the Southern Range Office, Presidency, to be exempted from passing the Uncovenanted Service Examination.

1 Service Register.
2 Certificates.
1 Letter from the Controller.

2. He was entertained as a Sub-Engineer's Acting Writer in June 1858, and held the appointment till December of that year. From January 1859 to April 1860, he was employed as Acting Writer and Conicopoly on the works attached to the Executive Engineer's Department. From the latter date he was permanently employed in the Public Works Department, and has invariably borne a good character throughout his service.

3. I enclose copy of his service register and certificates, as well as a certificate from the Executive Engineer, Northern Range, Presidency, regarding his employment in 1868-69.

4. The Controller, whose letter I enclose, states that, as he was not confirmed in the appointment in which he officiated on the 1st January 1859, he is not eligible for promotion; but I trust that the Accountant may be specially exempted under paragraph 16, Section I. of the Uncovenanted Servants' Vade Mecum, Government order, No. 313, dated 23rd September 1862, which rules that a person who had obtained an acting appointment prior to 1st January 1869, and held it continuously after that date until confirmed, may be promoted to situations above 25 rupees without passing the examination.

Dated 5th July 1869, No. 87.

5. Sabapathy Moodelly also now draws Rupees 25 per mensem as salary, though, under Government order, No. 3,490, dated 1st November 1866, unpassed candidates are not to receive more than 20 rupees monthly.

No. 542. ORDER THEREON, 26th October 1869, No. 3,450.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 42.

As Sabapathy Moodelly is reported to have given satisfaction in the discharge of his duties, and as he actually entered the service of Government prior to the 1st January 1859, since which time he has been continuously employed, His Excellency in Council is pleased to exempt him from passing the Uncovenanted Service Examination.
