GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Leave and Allowances.

FORT WILLIAM, the 6th January 1869.

Read again—

Financial Resolution No. 2703, dated the 29th September 1868, ruling that uncovenanted officers absent on privilege leave may draw their full pay during such absence, the acting allowances due to their substitutes being paid out of the general revenue.

Read—

A letter from the Officiating Accountant General, British Burmah, No. 3640, dated the 31st October last, enquiring whether the substitute of an uncovenanted ministerial officer absent on privilege leave shall be allowed full salary during the permanent incumbent's absence, in the event of a substitute not being obtainable, on less pay, or only acting allowance under the rules applicable to officers of that class.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council observes that the existing rules for the grant of acting allowances to uncovenanted ministerial officers are clearly not applicable now to the cases of substitutes for officers of this class absent on privilege leave, seeing that under orders of the 29th September last, uncovenanted officers generally are allowed to draw full pay during privilege leave, leaving no portion of their salaries available for their substitutes. His Excellency in Council is accordingly pleased, in supercession of all previous orders on the subject, to rule that an uncovenanted officer officiating for another uncovenanted officer shall be allowed, in addition to the full salary of his own appointment, a deputation allowance calculated at the following rates, viz., at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Rs. 2,000 per mensem, and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Rs. 2,000 per mensem at the rate of 20 per cent. upon Rs. 2,000 and of 10 per cent., on the remainder.

2. When the officiating officer is one who holds no substantive appointment, the deputation allowance shall be at the rate of 50 per cent. on the salary of the appointment officiated in. These acting allowances will be granted only when it is found necessary formally to appoint a substitute for an absentee. It is not intended that any change of practice should be made in this respect.

ORDERED, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the several Departments, Governments, and Provincial Accountants General and Deputy Accountants General in independent charge, and to the Comptroller General of Accounts, with an intimation to the Officiating Accountant General, British Burmah, that if, in the particular case referred to in his letter above quoted, the acting allowance sanctioned in this Resolution is not sufficient to procure a substitute, the privilege leave applied for must be refused as incompatible with the exigencies of the public service.

Ordered also, that the above Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

Secretary to the Government of India.
