Railway Chaplain.—Proceedings Federal Social Department, sanctioning a monthly allowance of Rupees 100 to Mr. Reverend P. W. Jackson, from the date of his joining his appointment as Railway Chaplain, &c., communicated to the Officer concerned.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Ecclesiastical Department, 27th January 1869.

No. 17. Read the following letter from the Right Reverend the Bishop of Madras, to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George; dated Palamcottah, 13th January 1869, No. 182.

I have the honor to request that your Excellency in Council will sanction the payment of a monthly grant to the Reverend F. W. Jackson, who has arrived from England to hold the appointment of Madras Railway Chaplain.

2. The maximum grant for additional Clergy is Rupees 150 a month. But I gathered from the correspondence between the late Bishop of Calcutta and the Government of India that the maximum grant to a Railway Chaplain was to be Rupees 100.

3. If, as would appear to be the case, this lower maximum was fixed on account of the guarantee given by the Government to the Railway Companies in India, I have to state that the sum contributed for the Madras Railway Chaplain was not taken from the general income of the Company, nor raised by a percentage on every share, but is the result of the gifts of those shareholders only who were willing to give. So that this Railway Chaplain seems to hold the same position with respect to Government, as a Clergyman connected with the Additional Clergy Society in the diocese of Calcutta, or one of those connected with the Colonial and Continental Church Society in Madras.

4. Under these circumstances, I respectfully request that the allowance granted to Mr. Jackson, and to any Clergyman who may at any time act on his behalf, or may succeed him, may be Rupees 150 a month.

5. I also request that Government will permit a free pass to be given to the Railway Chaplain, when on duty, for himself and one servant.

6. I recommend, also, that henceforth the Chaplain of Coonoor discontinue his pastoral visits to Coimbatore and to Palghat; that the Chaplain of Calicut discontinue his visits to Beypore; and that the Railway Chaplain be permitted to draw the usual travelling allowance for visiting the Civil station of Palghat, instead of the Chaplain of Coonoor, the allowance to be calculated by the distance from Palghat Railway Station to Palghat Civil Station.

No. 18. ORDER THEREON, 27th January 1869, No. 13.
The Governor in Council is pleased to sanction a monthly grant of 100 Rupees to the Reverend Mr. [Name] on his joining his appointment as Railway Chaplain.

2. His Excellency regrets that he is unable to comply with the request preferred by the Right Reverend the Bishop, that the Government allowance of the Madras Railway Chaplain should be raised to 150 Rupees per mensem, the Government of India having fixed the scale of remuneration at 100 Rupees per mensem.

3. The Consulting Engineer will be requested to obtain for the Railway Chaplain, a free pass for himself and servant when travelling by Railway on duty.

4. The proposal that the Chaplain of Coonoor should discontinue his pastoral visits to Coimbatore and Palghat, and that the Chaplain of Calicut should cease to visit Beypore, is approved, and His Excellency in Council sanctions the usual travelling allowance for visiting the civil station of Palghat, calculated by the distance from the Railway to the civil station at Palghat, being drawn by the Railway Chaplain.
