Read the following letter:—

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant General, dated Simla, 28th April 1869, No 291.

I AM directed to acknowledge the communication from your office, No. 519-E, dated 12th April 1869, submitting a representation from Honorary Captain P. Rubie, Deputy Commissary and Executive Commissariat Officer, Hazareebaugh, soliciting that his commission as Honorary Captain may be antedated to 5th November 1858, the date of his warrant as Deputy Commissary, so as to enable him to reckon his service for furlough from that date, under the recent ruling* of the Secretary of State for India.

* Government General Order, No. 207 of 1869

2. In reply, I am to state, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India in the Military Department concurs in His Excellency's opinion, that Captain Rubie can only be allowed to calculate his service for furlough under the rules of 1868, from 16th December 1861, the date of his commission as Lieutenant on the Veteran Establishment.

3. I am further to intimate that, in all cases of Warrant Officers holding honorary commissions, the service for furlough may count from the date of first commission of any description.
