No. 46. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, dated Simla, 14th June 1869, No. 998.

Leave and Allowances.

Read the undermentioned papers :—

Notification of this department, No. 735, dated the 28th January 1869, declaring that the rule "that when an officer carries on the duties of more than one office, his entire salary, including acting allowance, must in no case exceed the salary of the most highly paid of the offices which he fills," is still in force.

Letter to the Accountant General, Bengal, No. 1458, dated the 8th March 1869, deciding that, according to the notification mentioned above, "an Uncovenanted Servant acting in an office not more highly paid than his substantive appointment, without being relieved of his substantive duties, would be entitled to no acting allowance."

Letter from the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 1663, dated the 28th ultimo, objecting to the application of the rule contained in the notification of the 28th January 1869 to the cases of Uncovenanted Servants, with reference to the case of Pundit Mohesh Chunder Nyaratna, Professor of Rhetoric in the Sanscrit College at Calcutta and Officiating Professor of Hindoo Philosophy in the same college.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council observes that, as a general rule, it is unadvisable that officers "fairly occupied already" should be appointed to "carry on extra duties;" but, on a consideration of the objections contained in the last-mentioned letter, His Excellency in Council is pleased to sanction a relaxation of the rule repeated in the notification of the 28th January 1869 in cases in which the local Government certifies that it would have been detrimental to the public service to have made any other arrangement [illegible] in that by which an officer is required to do the d[illegible] of more than [illegible] the same time. The allowances of Pundit Mohesh Chunder Nyaratna will be regulated in accordance with this decision.

ORDER.—Ordered that the foregoing resolution be communicated to the Foreign, Home, Military, Public Works, and Legislative Departments; the Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab; Comptroller General of Accounts; the Accountants General in Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and British Burmah; and the Deputy Accountants General in the Central Provinces, Hyderabad, and Mysore.
