No. 85. ORDER THEREON, 5th August 1870, No. 1,872.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 13.

IN G. O., No. 1,352, dated 30th May 1870, the Government, while noticing the defective construction of the Police Station-house at Tangella in the Nellore District and animadverting on the conduct of the Members of Public Works Department who were entrusted with the erection of the structure, directed the submission of an estimate for the necessary repairs with a view to the building being made available for occupation. The Superintending Engineer of the 2nd Division now submits an estimate amounting to Rs 400, and states that this amount is required in addition to the old materials the value of which is computed at Rupees 179. The Government sanction the estimate and request the Inspector-General of Police to submit proposals for providing the required amount from the current year's Budget allotment for Police buildings.
