No. 465. Read the following Endorsement of the Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 16th December 1870, No. 484:—

From the Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to the Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 15th December 1870, No. 717.

ADVERTING to Order of Government, No. 2,292, dated the 22nd September 1870, and to the enclosed extract* from the Secretary's letter, No. 462, dated the 11th ultimo, I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to communicate the sanction of Government to the disbursement of salary to Mr. J. Cramp as Chief Accountant at the rate of £600 per annum, from the 11th November 1870.

Extract from a letter from the Secretary, Madras Railway Company, No. 462, dated London, the 11th November 1870.

Paragraph 13. Your selection of Mr. Cramp, the late Deputy, to act as Chief Accountant pending the receipt of instructions, is approved, and the Board, having had under consideration your strong recommendation, supported by the opinion of the Chief Auditor, in favour of Mr. Cramp's appointment to fill the office permanently, have resolved to appoint him Chief Accountant at Madras on the salary of £600 per annum. His engagement will be terminable by six months' notice on either side, and he will be required to provide security to the extent of £500.

14. By this arrangement a saving of £200 a year is effected in the salary of the office, and the Board are led to believe that, under the relief afforded by the amalgamation of the accounts of the two lines, it may not be necessary to appoint a successor to Mr. Cramp as Deputy, by which a further considerable saving will be attained.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) R. B. ELWIN,
Agent and Manager.

SUBMITTED for the sanction of Government, with reference to G. O., No. 2,292, dated 22nd September 1870.

2. A saving of £200 a year is effected in the salary of the office of Chief Accountant, and the Board consider there may also be a saving of £385 per annum by the abolition of the office of Deputy Accountant.

(Signed) H. L. PRENDERGAST, Captain, R. E.,
Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways.

No. 466. ORDER THEREON, 21st December 1870, No. 3,115.

RAILWAY, No. 46.

THE Board of Directors of the Madras Railway Company having confirmed Mr. Cramp in the appointment of Chief Accountant on the 11th November 1870, on a salary of £600 per annum, His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctions the disbursement to him of the increased rate of salary from that date.

(True Extract.)
