Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 21st January 1870.

58. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort William, 7th January 1870, Circular No. 55.

[Leave and Allowances.]

It has hitherto been the practice to communicate by endorsement to the various departments authorities concerned the general rules regarding leave and other allowances which are laid n by this department from time to time. To obviate the labour which this system entails, it been decided that all future rulings of this department on the subject referred to shall b blished for general information in the Gazette of India, to which the authorities concerned wil expected to refer. For the sake of convenience, however, unattested copies of the rulings wil forwarded under cover to the several departments of the Government of India and to the autho es with which this department directly corresponds.
