Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 12th February 1870.

No. 247. Read the following letter from the Acting Deputy Consulting Engineer for Railways, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 1st February 1870, No. 38 :—

I HAVE the honour to forward letter, No. 3,307, of the 27th January, from the Agent and Traffic Manager of the Great Southern of India Railway, embodying an extract from a letter from the Chief Engineer.

2. In Order, No. 147, of 13th January, Government sanctioned the entertainment of an Engineering Establishment amounting to Rupees 4,226 per mensem, this included an item of Rupees 80 for rent which the Chief Engineer now finds to be insufficient.

3. A suitable house having been found, I recommend that the rental of Rupees 130 per mensem be sanctioned, making the total amount for establishment Rupees 4,276 per mensem.

4. It must be understood, however, that no expenditure is to be made in fitting up workshops, etc., until it is settled at which point the southern extension is to commence.

From the Agent of the Great Southern of India Railway, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Negapatam, 27th January 1870, No. 3,307.

THE Chief Engineer has sent to me the following application, which I beg to submit for the orders of Government :—

"Will you please obtain the sanction of Government to a monthly expenditure of Rupees 130 "for office rent in place of Rupees 80 asked for in my late application for staff.

"I have secured the refusal of a large house here at that rent in every way the most suitable "for my establishment of Office, Stores, and Workshop. It is close to the line of railway, and "will be of the greatest convenience in every way."
