Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 23rd February 1870.

No. 455. Read the following Endorsement of the Acting Chief Secretary, dated 8th February 1870:—

Read the following letter from Captain T. WELDON, Magistrate of the Royapettah Police Court, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Royapettah, 3rd February 1870.

GOVERNMENT having resolved to appropriate this Court building to the use of His Highness Prince Azim Jah, I beg respectfully to tender for the acceptance of Government, at such valuation as may be decided on by the Officer in charge of Civil Buildings, or the District Engineer, three large glazed doors and nineteen pairs of half doors, without which the comfort and utility of the building as a residence would be greatly impaired. The three glazed doors are absolutely necessary during certain seasons of the year, when the southern doors of the large upper room have to be closed, as these glass doors afford the only means of lighting that room under the above circumstances.

2. None of the doors now referred to are fixtures. They are my property.

TRANSFERRED to the Public Works Department.

Acting Chief Secretary.
