I HAVE the honour to forward herewith an estimate of Rupees 2,150 for raising three bridges, building three tunnels, and forming an approach to the Meengara bridge on the frontier between Pollachy in the Coimbatore District and Collengode in Malabar (Imperial Road No. XIII.); the present bridges, which are structures of some standing, have been originally built too low, and require raising to save them from constant damages by flood-water, as well as to improve the levels of the line now being thoroughly re-constructed as an Imperial communication. A survey and longitudinal section of the portion of the road in question are also forwarded for information.
