menced building a pukka bungalow for his own use at Tamarakerry, the head of the Southern Burghoor Ghaut. I have calculated the value of work done previous to his removal to Cumbum at Rupees 1,200, and that Rupees 1,800 more would suffice to convert it into a building for the joint accommodation of European travellers, of a Public Works subordinate, and of the Police, who must shortly be stationed on these hills, now that a line is being opened through them for cart traffic to Collegal.

2. The Revenue Board have sanctioned Rupees 750 on account of the Travellers' Room, and I would suggest the appropriation of Rupees 750 more on account of the Public Works accommodation, and of Rupees 1,500 on account of the Police accommodation from the Reserve of 1870-71 or from the Minor New Works allotment of the 7th Division under the head of "Civil Buildings" and the Police allotment respectively.

3. A plan of the building is appended.
