Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 11th March 1870.

No 256.. Read the following letter from J. L. WILSON, Esq., C. E., late Assistant Engineer, Public Works Department, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Pondicherry, 10th March 1870 :—

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the Deed referred to in the G. O., No. 383, dated the 1st February 1870, and to herewith return it duly signed.

2. It is impossible for me to send the copy of my Covenant, as I have either lost or mislaid it, attaching no value to it as the original is in the possession of the Madras Government, the cancelling of which, I trust, will be all that is required, as I have stated in the Deed itself (marginally) the fact that I have lost it, but that, should I find it, I will return it to the India Office, London.

3. I most earnestly request that the gratuity granted me by Government may be paid to my credit at my Agents, Messrs. Binny and Co., at once, together with my pay for February 1870, which I trust has been sanctioned, (in accordance with the request contained in my letter dated March the 5th), as I am anxious to engage my passage Home as soon as possible.

No. 257. ORDER THEREON, 11th March 1870, No. 771.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 14.

MR. J. L. WILSON having executed the required Deed of release, the Controller of Public Works Accounts will arrange for the gratuity sanctioned to be disbursed to Mr. Wilson being paid on his account to his Agents, Messrs. Binny and Co., together with the amount of pay which Mr. Wilson may be entitled to receive up to the date on which he ceased to do duty in the department.
