Read the following letter from Mrs. AMELIA BREWER, to the Controller of Public Works Accounts, dated 18th October 1870.

My husband, Serjeant William Brewer, was suspended from duty as a Talook Overseer in the Cantonment of Cannanore on the evening of the 5th September 1870.

2. Mr. Brewer drew his pay up to the 31st August, and his travelling allowance up to the 31st July last, and I shall be extremely obliged if you could kindly advise me as to how I may recover the pay due to my husband from the 1st to the 5th September, as well as his travelling allowance from the 1st August to the 5th September inclusive. My husband was committed for trial by the High Court on or about the 7th September, and as I have no means whatever for support, I earnestly beg you will be good enough to inform me whether the rules permit of my drawing any subsistence allowance during my husband's confinement pending the judgment of the High Court.

SUBMITTED for the consideration and orders of Government.

2. Under the rules, Serjeant Brewer is entitled, during the period of his suspension,* to one-fourth of his total receipts, including Military pay, and to family allowance as follows:—

4. As regards subsistence allowance from and after the date† of Serjeant Brewer's committal for trial at the High Court, the Code of the Government of India prescribes that no pay shall be drawn until the termination of the proceedings. In a similar case, Government were pleased, looking to the length of time the trial was delayed, to authorize this office to pass to the wife of Serjeant Gorman a moiety of the Overseer's salary pending the judgment of the High Court on his case.
