No. 74. Read the following letter from Captain H. R. MEAD, R.E., Executive Engineer, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated 1st April 1871:—

I HAVE the honour to report that in Rule XVIII. I am allowed a period of leave not exceeding thirty days to enable me to rejoin my appointment on return from furlough from "the date of disembarkation in India."

2. I arrived at Bombay on the 5th of March 1871, my furlough expiring on the 6th of March.

3. In the Public Works Department Notification Establishment, dated Fort William, 14th March 1871, No. 123,* there is a new reading of the term "date of disembarkation in India," and according to it my return from furlough is reckoned from the date of my arrival at the port at which I may bona-fide disembark with the view of proceeding to join my appointment.

4. I consider that port to be Bombay, but as the Controller has a doubt upon the point the present reference is made.

No. 75. ORDER THEREON, 5th April 1871, No. 1,003.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 9 A.

As Bombay is now the most convenient port at which officers returning to duty in India can disembark and join their stations with the least delay, His Excellency the Governor in Council is of opinion that the ruling of the Government of India referred to by Captain Mead does not apply to Officers of this Presidency landing at Bombay on returning from furlough and proceeding to take up their appointments without loss of time.
