Office Memorandum from the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, dated 17th March 1871, No. 788.

WITH reference to the Memorandum from the Public Works Department, No. 187-B—M, dated 24th February 1871, the undersigned has the honour to acquaint the Secretary to the Government of India in that Department, that the opinion conveyed in the Memorandum from this Office, No. 595, of the 14th December 1870, was not intended to apply to Band Masters of the Native Corps as, in the Native Army, Bands are not a recognized part of the regular Regimental establishment, though in certain cases, where bands had been previously established, the Government gives a grant-in-aid to the officers for their maintenance.

2. Neither, the undersigned has the honour to add, was reference intended to any Band Masters excepting those regularly borne on the establishment of a Regiment, who were called in Government General Order, No. 472, of the 28th April 1870, Band Master Serjeants, but later, in Government General Order, No. 594, of the 3rd June 1870, are correctly styled Band Masters. These are Military Band Masters, and being enlisted men, as such are entitled to quarters; Civilian Band Masters are not recognized as any part of the Regimental establishment, and all arrangements necessary for their accommodation, etc., are made Regimentally.
