Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 12th May 1871

No. 223. Read the following Endorsement of the Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 1st May 1871, No. 186 —

From the Agent of the Great Southern of India Railway, to the Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Negapatam, 26th April 1871, No. 3,999.

GOVERNMENT have sanctioned staff expenditure being incurred upon "Preliminary expenses, Southern Extension," up to the 31st of next month. Now that the plans and estimates for that extension have to be prepared for a narrow gauge railway, I shall feel obliged by your obtaining sanction to a further outlay (say Rupees 21,033) to cover the cost of the staff up to the 31st July next.

SUBMITTED to the Government.

2. The Agent of the Great Southern of India Railway applies for sanction for the expenditure of Rupees 21,033 on account of preliminary expenses connected with the Southern Extension, for the two months of June and July. The last sanction was for the amount of Rupees 42,065-6-0, as communicated in G. O., No. 882, dated 24th March 1871, for the four months ending the 31st May.

3. The Government decided in their Order No. 939, of the 30th March 1871, that the narrow gauge should be adopted; and the plans and estimates, which were then under examination in this office, have accordingly been returned for revision.

4. The sum now asked for being at the rate sanctioned by the Government of India in their letter No. 436, of the 13th March, namely, Rupees 10,516-5-6 per mensem, I recommend that application for sanction for Rupees 21,032-11-0 be made to the Government of India.
