Public Works Department Resolution, Nos. 1,605/9-R, dated 22nd September 1870.

" " " " " 227/33-A R., dated 21st March 1871

OBSERVATIONS —The form of review prescribed in Public Works Department Resolution Nos. 1,605/9-R, dated 22nd September 1870, was based on the form of Revenue Account then in force. The latter, however, has now been somewhat modified, and the reviews will consequently require similar modification so that the main and sub-heads of the revised account may be followed in the review.

2 The opportunity should be taken of introducing a slight modification in table A. of the review, which exhibits the general features of the working of the half-year. By an oversight the earnings and expenses recorded in the first two statements of this table are shown as divided between "Coaching" and "Goods," without a third head of "Miscellaneous," which should be added in future reviews.

3. It will be understood that the number of excess fares in table B should not be added into the total number of passengers, so that the latter figure may show the actual number of passengers of all kinds, except season ticket holders.

4. In the analysis of the cost of carriage, Post Office sorting carriages will be treated as special coaching vehicles in a similar manner to "horse-boxes" or "luggage vans," the average weight of their contents being approximately estimated.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to the Governments and Administration noted in the margin for information and guidance.
