No. 313. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Railway,) to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, (Railway,) dated Simla, 4th May 1871, No. 737-R :—

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter No. 731, dated the 31st March 1871, with a report of the progress made in the construction of the Great Southern of India Railway during the last quarter of 1870, I am directed to observe that it is concluded that the figures on the second page of the report refer to the extension only. If this be not so, I am to request that in future the extension works may be separately reported on, and in any case the tabular returns should be supplemented by a brief report, giving a description of the general state of the works and the main features of the progress.
