 Regarding Census
 Returns for European
 And commissioned Officers and Soldiers in the U. S. Public Service
 1859-31 May 1871

This Paper to be filled up by the OCCUPIER or Person in charge of the dwelling.
If a house is let or sub-let to Separate Families or Lodgers, each OCCUPIER or LODGER must make a return for his portion of the house upon a SEPARATE PAPER.

INSTRUCTIONS for filling up the Column headed "RANK, PROFESSION, or OCCUPATION."
A person following more distinct occupations than one should insert them in the order of their importance.

1. The superior Titles of Peers and other Persons of Rank to be inserted, as well as any important office they may hold.
2. Members of Parliament, Magistrates, Aldermen, and other important public Officers to state their profession or occupation, if any, after their official rank or title.
3. All persons serving in the Army and Navy to state their rank and the branch of the service to which they belong. Officers to state whether on the Active or Retired List: Chelsea, Greenwich, and other Pensioners to be so designated.
4. All persons in the Civil Service to state their rank and the department or branch to which they belong; those retired or superannuated to be distinguished.
5. Ministers of Religion.—Clergymen of the Church of England to return themselves as "Rector of —," "Vicar of —," "Curate of —," &c., or "without cure of souls." They are requested not to employ the indefinite term "Clerk." Roman Catholic Priests and Ministers of Foreign Churches to return themselves as such, and to state the name of the Church or Chapel in which they officiate. Dissenting Ministers to return themselves as "Independent Minister of — Chapel," "Wesleyan Minister of — Chapel," &c. Local or occasional preachers must return their ordinary occupations, but may add "Local Methodist preacher," &c., &c.
6. Legal Profession.—Barristers to state whether they are in actual practice. The designation Attorney or Solicitor to be confined to those whose names are actually on the Roll. Barristers' Clerks are so to return themselves. Clerks in Solicitors' Offices should state whether they are Solicitor's Managing, Articled, or General Clerk. Officers of any Court to state the name of the Office and the name of the Court.
7. Members of the Medical Profession to state whether they practise as Physician, Surgeon, Dentist, Oculist, General Practitioner, Assistant, &c., or are "not practising." They must also state the University or other society of which they are Graduates, Fellows, or Licentiates.
8. Professors, Teachers, Public Writers, Authors, and Scientific men to state the particular branch of Science or Literature which they follow; Artists, the art which they cultivate. Graduates should enter their degrees in this column.
9. Students of Theology, Law, or Medicine, and Under-graduates of any University, to be so returned.
10. Scholars.—Children or young persons attending a School or receiving regular instruction at home to be returned as "Scholars."
11. Land-owners.—Proprietors of land in England and Wales, being agricultural land, pasture, moor, or woodland, in addition to their rank or occupation, to state that they are land-owners. But no persons to be so described in respect of land attached to a house or houses, and not exceeding one acre in extent.
12. Farmers.—This term is to be applied only to the occupiers of land, who are to state the number of acres occupied, and the number of men, women, and boys employed on the farm on April 3rd.—Examples: "Farmer of 317 Acres, employing 8 labourers and 3 boys." Sons or Daughters employed at home or on the farm may be returned—"Farmer's Son," "Farmer's Daughter." Men employed on the farm and sleeping in the
- as Farm Servants.
13. Agricultural Labourers, Shepherds, and others employed on Farms, but not living in the Farmer's house, must be described as Agricultural Labourers, Shepherds, &c.
14. Persons engaged in Commerce, as Merchants, Brokers, Agents, &c., to state in what cases the particular branch of Commerce in which they are engaged, or the staple in which they chiefly deal.—Examples: "East India Merchant," "Member of—Stock Exchange," "Cotton Broker." Commercial Clerk, Commercial Traveller, Shopman—always add in what branch of business.
15. In Trades, Manufactures, or other Business, Masters must, in all cases, be distinguished.—Example: "Carpenter—Master, employing 6 men and 2 boys;" inserting always the numbers of workpeople in their employ, if any, on April 3rd. In the case of Firms, the number of persons employed should be returned by the senior or some one partner only.
16. Workers in Manufactures or Mines, and generally in the Mechanical Arts, should distinctly state the particular branch of work and the material, if they are not implied in the names, as in Coal-miner, Brass-founder, Silk-throwster. Where the trade is much sub-divided, both Trade and Branch are to be returned thus—"Watch-maker—Finisher;" "Printer—Compositor."
17. Engineers, when engaged in works or factories are to be distinctly described.—Examples: "Engine Smith at Factory," "Engine Fitter at Works." Engine Drivers, Stokers, and Firemen to be described in connexion with the manufactory, railway, steam vessel, &c., in which they are employed.—Examples: "Railway Engine Drivers," "Stoker in Cotton Factory." "Engineer alone is not to be used.
18. Artizans and Mechanics should invariably state the particular branch of mechanical art or business in which they are employed.
19. Weaver.—"Silk," "Wool," "Worsted," "Cotton," &c., should always be written before this general term, so as to express distinctly the material which he weaves, thus—"Silk Weaver."
20. Domestic Servants should be described according to the nature of their service, adding in all cases "Domestic Servant."—Examples: "Coachman—Domestic Servant," "Gardener—Domestic Servant."
21. Messengers, Porters, Labourers, to be described according to the nature of their employment on the day of the census.—Examples: "Railway Porter," "Brick-layer's Labourer," "Labourer in Iron Works."
22. Persons ordinarily engaged in some industry, but out of employment on April 3rd, should be so described, as "Coal-miner, unemployed," "Printer, unemployed."
23. Persons following no profession, trade, calling, and holding no public office, but deriving their incomes chiefly from houses, dividends, interest of money, annuities, &c., may describe themselves accordingly. The indefinite terms Gentleman, Esquire, are not to be used. Persons who have retired from business to be entered thus—"Retired Farmer," "Retired Grocer."
24. Women and Children.—The occupations of those who are regularly employed from home, or who follow any business at home, is to be distinctly recorded. See also instruction No.

TO THE OCCUPIER.

You are requested to insert the particulars specified below, in compliance with an Act which passed the House of Commons and the House of Lords, in the last Session of Parliament, and received the assent of Her Majesty The Queen or and it is desirable that you should have the answers written in the proper columns by the morning of that date, in order that his progress may not be delayed. It will be his duty, under the Act, to complete the return if it be defective, and to correct it if erroneous. Any person authorized by you may write in the particulars if you are yourself unable to do so.

Persons who refuse to give CORRECT INFORMATION are liable to a Penalty of Five Pounds; besides the inconvenience and annoyance of appearing before two Justices of the Peace, and being convicted of having made a wilful misstatement of age, or of any of the other particulars.

The Return is required to enable the Secretary of State to complete the EIGHTH CENSUS, which is to show the exact numbers, ages, and condition of the people—their arrangement by families in different ranks, professions, and trades—their distribution over the country in villages, towns, and cities—their increase and progress during the last ten years.

The facts will be published in General Abstracts only, and strict care will be taken that the returns are not used for the gratification of curiosity.

GEORGE GRAHAM,
By Order-General.
