No. 24. Read the following Endorsement of the Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 22nd May 1871, No. 229:—

From the Agent of the Great Southern of India Railway, to the Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Negapatam, 8th May 1871, No. 4,006.

With reference to your letter, No. 265, of the 27th August 1869, I have the honour to report, for the information of Government, the sudden death at the Railway Station of Trichinopoly, on the 5th instant, of a Native woman named Shooro Coortha, grandmother of Sashachellum Chetty of Poonamallee, aged about 70 years. The body was at once taken away by the deceased's friends, and the circumstance reported to the Police the same day.

From the Agent of the Great Southern of India Railway, to the Acting Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Negapatam, 19th May 1871, No. 4,031.

The Assistant Traffic Manager, to whom your letter, No. 147, of the 11th instant was referred, replies to it as follows:—

"The only information I can give is that the woman with her friends came in haste to the "station for fear of not being in time, and died before entering on to the platform. I presume "from over-exertion."

Submitted for the information of Government.
