Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 19th June 1871.

No. 342. Read the following letter from the Superintending Engineer, 4th Division, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 30th May 1871, No. 857 —

I HAVE the honour to request that you will obtain the orders of Government on the following point, as how far I may grant casual leave to the gazetted officers, Upper and Lower Subordinates under my orders.

2. It was formerly laid down, or rather understood, that a Superintending Engineer could grant a few days on an emergency, not to exceed ten days, to any officer under him; this leave was designated casual leave, the Superintending Engineer being held responsible that this was not abused, and only given in the most emergent cases. This now holds good in the Military Department, but the Controller, on the 17th February, issued a Circular Memorandum intimating "that the grant of "casual leave to officers holding gazetted appointments has been declined to be "inadmissible," without quoting his authority.

3. It is very inconvenient not being able to give a short casual leave; for instance, an officer under me applied for leave for three days to take a sick wife to Bangalore, but I could not grant it; and his only way would have been to have trenched on privilege leave, and not been able to have any more for six months. I would request a ruling of Government on this point, and that favourable consideration be taken for authority being given to Superintending Engineers to grant a casual leave, not exceeding ten days, without loss of pay or trenching as privilege leave but only in most emergent cases.

No. 343. ORDER THEREON, 19th June 1871, No. 1,654.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 38.

"Casual leave on full pay may be granted in addition to privilege leave, but gazetted officers are not allowed casual leave"

THE Superintending Engineer of the 4th Division will be informed that the rule regarding casual leave to gazetted officers quoted in the margin (paragraph 476 of the Uncovenanted Servants Vade Mecum) is based on orders of the Government of India and cannot be modified.

2 The rules which regulate the grant of casual leave to Uncovenanted Servants of Government are given at page 87 of the Vade Mecum.

Sir

I have the honor to request that you will obtain the orders of Government on the following point, as how far I may grant casual leave to the gazetted officers, upper and lower subordinates under my orders

2. It was formerly laid down or rather understood, that a Superintending Engineer could grant a few days on an emergency not to exceed 10 days to any officer under him, this leave was designated casual leave, the Superintending Engineer being held responsible that this was not misused, and only given in the most emergent emergent cases. This now holds good in the Military Department but the Controller on the 17th February issued a Circular Memo intimating that "the grant of casual leave to officers holding gazetted appointments has been declined to be manipulable" without quoting his authority.

3. It is very inconvenient not being able to give a short casual leave for instance, an officer under ^{applied} for leave for 3 days to take a sick wife to Bangalore but I could not not grant it and his only way would have been to have trencher on privilege leave and ~~not~~ not been able to have any more for six months.

I would request a ruling of Government on this point and that favorable consideration be taken for authority being given to Superintending Engineers to grant a casual leave not exceeding ten days without loss of pay or trenching as privilege leave
