Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 5th July 1871.

No. 53. Read the following telegram from Colonel DICKENS, Simla, to Colonel CARPENDALE, Madras, dated 1st July 1871 —

MAJOR Hankin should not be allowed to avail himself of his furlough unless his health requires it, until relieved by the officer appointed by the Government of India to take his place. Have you any fully qualified officer whom the Madras Government would wish to nominate?

ORDERED that the following telegram be sent:—

“To Colonel Dickens, Simla.

“MAJOR Hankin's health obliged him to leave for England at once. Full answer by post.”

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

ESTABLISHMENT, No 11

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge your telegram of the 1st, and in continuation of my reply, copy of which is enclosed, to report, for the information of the Government of India, that Major Hankin was taken suddenly very ill, and although his leave to England was on ordinary furlough and not on medical certificate, being quite unfit for duty, he was permitted to embark immediately, and this Government accordingly appointed Lieutenant G. R. Walker, R E., an Assistant Engineer of nearly three years' standing in the department, to officiate in Major Hankin's place for the remainder of Captain C. M. Moberly's absence. There is no officer available who would answer the requirement of "fully qualified," as there is no one who has had any previous experience in a similar office; but, so far as an opinion can be formed without actual trial, there is every reason to conclude that Lieutenant Walker will be found quite capable of discharging the duty satisfactorily as Major Hankin has done, and whose previous training was of a similar nature, and I am to add that His Excellency in Council hopes the Government of India will approve of this nomination and sanction Lieutenant Walker's acting appointment.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Colonel, R.E.,

Secretary to Governmen.

Exd. E. C. Shunker.
