No. 86. Read the following letter from the Secretary to Home Government, Public Works Department, (Railway,) to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, (Railway,) dated India Office, S. W., London, 1st June 1871:—

THE last Accounts received from the Madras Government relating to the Madras, Great Southern of India, and Carnatic Railways are printed on one sheet of paper, a deviation from former practice which the Accountant-General in this Department has represented as being attended with inconvenience. May I request therefore that you will give directions for the Accounts of each Railway being in future submitted, as heretofore, on a separate sheet of paper.
