No. 178. Read the following letter from the Controller of Public Works Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 7th July 1871, No. 983 :—

WITH reference to the appointment notified in the Gazette of the 13th June 1871, of Lieutenant C. C. Rawson, of the Royal Engineers, to be an Assistant Engineer of the second grade in the vacancy caused by Lieutenant-Colonel Palmer proceeding on furlough to Europe, I have the honour to request the orders of Government as to the source from which the salary of Lieutenant Rawson is to be met.

2. Under paragraph 36, section 2, Chapter I., of the Code of the Government of India, the vacancy caused by an officer proceeding on furlough for 12 months and upwards is not to be reckoned till the long leave, exclusive of preparatory, actually takes effect. As Lieutenant-Colonel Palmer did not leave Bellary till the 1st instant on preparatory leave, and did not probably embark at Bombay till the 4th idem, the vacancy caused by his absence on leave cannot be regarded as having occurred till the latter date, prior to which Captain Beatty, R.E., Supernumerary Executive Engineer of the second grade, returned from Europe. Under the rules, Captain Beatty must be absorbed by Lieutenant-Colonel Palmer's vacancy, and, this being the case, the promotion of Lieutenant Taylor and the appointment of Lieutenant Rawson, as notified in the Gazette above quoted, cease to have effect. Another vacancy, however, has occurred in the Executive Engineer class by the departure, on furlough, this day, of Captain Begbie, Executive Engineer of the third grade, and the two officers just mentioned may, therefore, now be promoted and appointed in that vacancy. Special sanction, in such case, will be necessary to admit of the passing of Lieutenant Rawson's pay from the 27th June 1871, the date on which he joined the Madura District, to that on which his re-appointment may be notified.

No. 179. ORDER THEREON, 12th July 1871, No. 1,830.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 21A.

THE necessary alterations of appointments have been notified in the Gazette of the 11th July, and the Controller is authorized to pass Lieutenant Rawson's pay from the 27th June 1871 to the 11th July 1871 against savings on the general assignment for establishments.
